Try a Vulcan one time, and you will use no other Chilled Plow.

Ex-Sheriff J. W. Lane was ringing a cow's nose to keep her from rotting up his grass last week. One of his fingers got in the cow's mouth and she bit it off.

The ladies of the Salt Lick M. E. Church will give an old-fashioned box supper at the church in that town, on Saturday night, March 26. All are invited to come and see the bit it off.

Buy your Seed Potatoes and Onion Sets of Brother & Goodpastor.

The old board of directors of the Owensville, Bald Eagle & Sharpburg turnpike sold the toll-house at Prickly Ash to Horstman Bros. for $275. The purchasers will move their stock of goods into it.

Just received: an elegant line of Shirt Waists. We have them from 50c to $1.

The talk about other chilled plows only advertises the Oliver.

T. S. Shroat is the only undertaker in the town doing business who has his Diploma for Embalming the Dead. Satisfaction guaranteed or no charge.

If the set of my Hand-made Cheek-lines, Blind Bridges and Wagon Gearing don't outwear two sets of the so-called hand-made you get other places. I don't charge you a cent for the home-made.

EOGNE MINIHAN.

Capt. Edmund Q. Wells, of near town, was kicked by his horse while passing him in the barn Sunday afternoon. The animal planted both feet in the small of Mr. Wells' back, breaking a rib, but causing considerable pain, but nothing more serious than a temporary soreness is likely to result.

Our line of Clothing is complete, and when we price them to you, it will be hard indeed to resist buying. Nice Double-breasted Knee Suits at 75c. Vic Bloomfield & Co., Gillon's Old Stand.

If you will stop in at Ramsey's you will find a large stock of 16, 18 and 20 foot hand-made cheeck lines cheaper than ever sold in Owensville.

Brother & Goodpastor have the largest stock of Onion Sets, Seed Potatoes, Beans, Peas, Corn, etc., in town.

T. S. Shroat has the Largest Line of Furniture in Bath Co., at the lowest prices. Persons going to housekeeping this spring will save $5 by calling on him.

The Fiscal Court closed the deal with the O. & McIntyre's Ferry turnpike company Tuesday, the county agreeing to assume the road's indebtedness. The Sheriff had been enjoining guards for the toll-gates on this road. The Legislature failed to pass the partial repeal of the Martin Mob law over the Governor's veto.

Ramsey & Co. have now on hand the largest, best selected and cheapest stock of Plow and Wagon Gearing ever in this market and they are selling them.

T. S. Shroat has on hand a complete line of new Buggies and Phaetons which he will trade for an old one or for a horse or mule. Prices very low for new buggies for cash or trade.

The Vulcan is the lightest and strongest Chilled Plow. The points always fit. See the new corrugated points for roots, at E. Minihan's.

Have you seen Ramsey's new stock of Breeding, Collars, Hames, &c.?

We have Dress Goods in all the latest shades to fit any purse. See them and you will buy a Dress Pattern. All-wool fancy Dress Goods, 25c.

Buy an Oliver chilled plow, and with a few repairs you will have a good plow the rest of your life.

Buy your Garden Seed in the bulk of Brother & Goodpastor. They have anything you want and their prices are the lowest.

Young housekeepers can find everything in Stoves, Queensware, Glassware, Tinware and Woodware cheaper than ever known at Jno. A. Ramsey & Co's.

That's right! You can get anything you want at Brother & Goodpastor's: Clover Seed, Timothy Seed, Blue Grass Seed, Oat Seed, Garden Seed, &c., &c.

Ramsey & Co. have a large stock of Oliver Chilled Plows, and have sold more already than for two years past. This speaks for itself.

I will sell you a Vulcan and if it is not the best Chilled Plow you ever used, bring it back and I will refund your money.

EOGNE MINIHAN.

JOHN A. RAMSEY & CO.

Our line of Men's, Ladies' and Misses' Shoes consist of nice, dressy Shoes of all grades and our prices are lower than anywhere else.

Vic Bloomfield & Co., Blue Front Cash Store.

THE BEST.—The Oliver is the only plow made that has a point in one piece. When you put on a point you have the cutter; you don't have to put on a shin-piece to complete the cutter; thus leaving a crack to catch trash.

TOBACCO REPORT.—EXPERIENCE FOR THE OUTLOOK BY J. S. PHELPS & CO., PLANTERS WAREHOUSE.—Louisville, March 19, 1898.—Receipts for the week, 1,810 hides; sales, 3,388 hides, divided as follows: 396 Old Burley, 2,472 New Burley, 379 Old Dark, and 141 New Dark.

The weather this week has been against our tobacco market, warm rainy days causing tobacco to show very soft when otherwise it would have been in fair order. In spite of this we have had the best market of the year on all tobacco of decided character. Any irregularity that has occurred has been confined to rough, nondescript, green sorts, or tobacco in very bad condition. Rejections of this kind have been few, showing that prices for them were not as satisfactory as last week. On Friday our house sold a round crop from Henry Co. as follows:

Bright Leaf.....$23.00
Red Leaf.....23.00
Lugs.....14.25
Tips.....12.50
Flings.....6.50
Average.....15.93

All rejections of good filley tobacco that were resold showed the market to be from two to three cents higher on this grade than in February. Bright lugs and trashes in strong demand and prices fully up to last week's quotations. The quality of the offerings, as a rule, were again very mean this week, many crops being sold for which there was no demand whatever from country buyers.

The medium grades of Old tobacco were decidedly better this week. Tobacco that have been selling at from $10.50 to $11.50 brought this week about 13 cents. Common grades of Old a little better than last week, but not up to the prices ruling in February. The stocks of Old tobacco are being rapidly reduced, and in 60 days our market will be almost bare of Old tobacco.

NIXON HERMAN.—Mr. W. L. Nixon left last Friday for Peoria, Illinois to get married Monday evening to Miss Lena Hermann. They will return to Cincinnati to spend a few days, when they will return home and go to housekeeping adjoining the property of James Gillon. Miss Hermann is said to be a very handsome and intelligent young lady. She and Mr. Nixon have been lovers for some years; in fact, as is understood, ever since Mr. Nixon was a citizen of that place. Her choice of Mr. Nixon shows her good judgment. Mr. Nixon stands as well as any young man ever raised in this town. He has qualified himself for business until he is the head of one of the largest dry-goods stores in the city and his friends are legion. THE OUTLOOK throws the old shoe at Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Nixon and wishes them all sorts of success in life.

LOCAL TOBACCO SALES.—Jas. M. Richard's purchases: west of town, John Hedrick & Son's at 8c with 50 lbs. thrown in; in town, John Duncan's at 8c with 25 pounds thrown in; on lower State Creek, Branch, crop of New Cassidy and New Kincaid at 9c; New Kincaid's at 8c.

Peed & Goodpastor's purchases: on lower State, crop of J. T. Atchison and John Tineher at 5c; Robertson Bros' (of Bethel) purchases: near town, crop of T. W. Ewing and Thomas Stone at 7c; Cud Snedegar's (of Wyoming) purchases: on Flat Creek, crop of 8c; on Prickly Ash, James Conner's at 7c; on Mink's Run, crops of J. B. Crouch and tenants Mart and Tom Markland, John Tineher and Lee Crouch at 8c with 5c premium; on Lower Prickly Ash, A. C. Cayle and Moses Fitzpatrick at 8c.

J. D. Noel bought for Liggett & Myers, of St. Louis, on Bald Eagle, S. S. Ratliff's at 11c.

SIGN AND WORDS.—There was a display of aurora phenomena witnessed here at the north to northeast Tuesday night of last week about 8 o'clock. When first observed there was a white glow at the horizon that shifted about slowly and finally sent up streamers toward the zenith. The streamers would appear and disappear, to be succeeded by a faint crimson color. The display was interesting, but nothing to be compared with the magnificent and positively startling display witnessed here on the night of April 16th, 1882. Then the whole northern sky from the horizon nearly to the zenith for an extent of at least ninety degrees was covered by a bright yellow flame-colored curtain that waved as if agitated from the horizon upward. When the light faded an intense crimson color appeared. Amusing stories were told of some superstitious folks who saw it and were convinced that the end of the world had come. Of course, some who saw last week's display interpreted it to be one of the signs that foretold war, and a New York "Yaller" Journal made much of it, knowing at the same time the scientific aspect of it. Such phenomena invariably accompany sun disturbances in the sun such as sun spots. As to which is the cause of the other scientists are not determined.

FROM CALIFORNIA.—Monterey, California, Mar. 18, 1898.—TO THE OUTLOOK, Owensville, Ky.: As THE OUTLOOK is a regular visitor, and one of my most welcome visitors, I will drop it a few lines.

When I look back and think of the "Old Kentucky" winters I can hardly realize that I have gone through a winter at all, the weather has been so nice and warm. The fruit ranchers have kept their fruit in open houses all winter, and instead of being affected by frosts it is as nice and fresh now as when gathered. The farmers are beginning to plant corn. We plant from the 1st of March every two weeks until late in the fall, so as to have green corn for the cows. This place (The Del Monte Creamery) some months sells three thousand dollars' worth of butter and milk, but a smaller average for the year. The Creamery employs from fourteen to eighteen laborers, all their own housekeepers and fed by a Chinese cook.

I have been in California a short time, but long enough to be convinced of the advantages over the Eastern States in all—health, pleasure and profit, and a climate which is unequalled. Some may prefer a residence in the beautiful southern tropics of the South, where the winters are to be much enjoyed and the summers scorch the backs of the lizards, but I prefer a more equable climate.

While in Kentucky I could only fancy what pleasure it must be to visit the ocean, see the waves dash high in the air, hunt sea-shells, and see the steamers going to and fro. Now I am satisfied when all these and many other scenes pleasing to the eye are realized. The whales can often be seen spouting and rising above the top of the water, and the sea lion can be seen and heard howling from the summit of some ocean rock. Pleasure-seekers from all over the United States and many from foreign countries come to the famous Del Monte Hotel and spend months enjoying the fine weather and picturesque scenery. I, like Mr. Mead, expected to find in the Creoles the beauty of Benvenuto or that of Coralie Hostock as was described in your story columns some time ago, but I also was sadly disappointed. I think that if Mr. Mead could see some of the Spanish señoritas (young ladies) he would agree with me that they possess the charms of the Bath county belles. Before closing I must compliment "The Outlook" for its lively and interesting letters. Why can't we have a correspondent from Reynoldsville? Wishing THE OUTLOOK much success, and may it ever stand on the firm basis of "Gold," I remain your friend,

KEMER SWETNAM.

FROM MISSOURI.—Marshall, Mo.—EDITOR OUTLOOK, DEAR SIR: Looking through my old scrap book a few days ago I ran across an article that I had clipped from some paper several years ago. It was rather a traditional history, that was much talked about when I was boy, and will be doubtless remembered by some of the older readers of THE OUTLOOK. The Sprinkle dollar, the silver mine and the hidden treasure were common topics, as I remember, of conversation. Old Dr. Roe, a brother-in-law of Jefferson Rice, both are now gone, said that Sprinkle showed him where he manufactured the coin between two cliffs in Lewis county, but would not tell him where he obtained the ore. Some said that at that time who lived on Licking river believed that they had found the thread that led to the labyrinth in the mountains of Bath county. Many searches were made, but the hidden treasure yet remains unrevealed to man. I would like to hear how many of THE OUTLOOK's readers remember about the Josiah Sprinkle dollars.

I send you the article copied from my scrap book.

THE SPRINKLE DOLL.

AN OLD KENTUCKIAN'S COINAGE BEFORE THE DECLINE IN SILVER.

(From the Washington Times.)

"I saw by the papers the other day where three of the famous Sprinkle dollars had shown up," said F. L. Trobridge, of Peoria, Ill., at the National.

"Do you know what the Sprinkle dollars were? No? Well, Josiah Sprinkle, the man in question, lived in one of the roughest sections of Lewis county, Ky. Washington, the county seat of Mason, was a thriving town. One day Sprinkle, then an old man, appeared at Washington with a buckskin pouch full of silver dollars of his own make. In every respect they appeared the equal of the national coin.

"The weight was more than at present, and the quality and ring were all that could be asked for. He spent them freely, and everybody accepted them upon the assurance of Sprinkle that they were all right, and that they were not made by the United States mint. Upon being asked where he got the silver he replied: 'Oh, it don't matter. There is plenty of it left.' The inscriptions on the coins were merely outlined, and in nowise was an attempt made at imitating the national coin. On one side of the coin was an owl and on the other a six-pointed star. The edges were smooth. The coins were considerably larger and thicker than the United States coins. Whenever Sprinkle came to town he spent the dollars of his own make. At one time he volunteered the information that he had a silver mine in the west, but one old man refused to tell any one where it was located.

A pure whisky agrees with any food, in fact aids digestion. It tones the stomach, increases the flow of the gastric juices and so promotes strength and flesh. A pure whisky like HARPER Whisky.

OWINGVILLE, : KENTUCKY

A most wonderful feat has been proposed to the British government. It is to raise by means of monster nets the great battleship Victoria which at present lies at the bottom of the Mediterranean sea. If this is successfully performed, and electro-catalysts of note believe that it will be done, it will revolutionize the wringing industry, as well as make a stride in electric science. A suggested experiment on the part of the British government is of especial interest at the present time, in the sinking of the American battleship Maine in Havana harbor.
